ORDER

Per D.K. AGARWAL (JM).

These two appeals preferred by the assessee are directed against the separate orders dated 25.1.1006 passed by the Id. CIT(A) for the Assessment Years 1997-98 and 2000-01 respectively. Both these appeals are disposed of by this common order for the sake of convenience.

2. At the time of hearing none was present on behalf of the assessee nor filed any application for adjournment of the case. It appears that the assessee is not interested to pursue the appeals. Hence, following the decision of the Tribunal Delhi Bench in the case of A.Y:97-98 & 00-01 CIT Vs. Multiplan India Limited reported in 38 ITD 320, the appeals filed by the assessee are treated as unadmitted for want of prosecution.

3. The assessee shall, however, be at liberty to approach the Tribunal for recalling of this order, if prevented by sufficient cause for non-appearance on the date of hearing.

4. In the result, assessee's appeals stand dismissed.

Order pronounced in the open court on 7.5.2010.
